Day 02: Amsterdam:

After breakfast, proceed for a City tour. Visit Volendam. It is a town in North Holland, 20 kilometres north of Amsterdam. Sometimes called "the pearl of the Zuiderzee", this place is a highly popular tourist destination. Here, you will find many Dutch cliches including the traditional costumes and wooden shoes. Then proceed for Marken and windmill Tour. Marken is a village in the Waterland and Zaan Region, North Holland. It is known for its characteristic wooden houses and traditional costumes. It used to be an island in the former Zuiderzee, but is now connected to the mainland by a causeway. Windmills are an iconic part of the Dutch landscape and a visit to one is a must for visitors to the Netherlands. With eight windmills located in and around Amsterdam, windmill spotting is a great way to see the city. Overnight at your hotel in Amsterdam.

Day 03:Amsterdam:

After breakfast, proceed for a Canal Cruise tour. There are more than 100 kilometres of canals, around 90 islands and 1550 bridges in the city. This mini cruise is an ideal way to get a taste of this most romantic of cities from the water. Get privileged views of the some of the city's most beautiful spots from one of the deluxe boats. As you cruise through the old city centre you will be able to admire gabled merchants mansions, old churches and warehouses dating from Holland's Golden Age in the 17th Century, as well as the numerous bridges, typical houseboats and the unique vibe of this fascinating city. Overnight at your hotel in Amsterdam.
